

Spring Stormwater Tips: Consider using fertilizer and 'lawn care' chemicals sparingly

- Apply fertilizer when less than half an inch of rain is forecasted.
- Minimize any products that promise to kill insects.
- Caution on the use of products which contain herbicides. Herbicides eliminate pollinator friendly species of plants, which also have deeper roots than turf grass.
- Consider encouraging Clover lawns. Clover plants are more drought resistant and self-fertilize the soil.

